ABOUT ISCSP-ULISBOA

Founded in 1906, the Institute of Social and Political Sciences (ISCSP-ULisboa) is part of the University of Lisbon and it is committed to excellence in training, research, community service and international cooperation.

In the most recent assessment of R&D units by the Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT), the Center for Administration and Public Policies (CAPP) and the Interdisciplinary Centre for Gender Studies (CIEG) were rated “Excellent”. The Orient Institute (IO) was given the rating of “Good”.

STRUCTURE OF ISCSP-ULISBOA

The structure of research activities at ISCSP is comprised of FCT-accredited research centres (CAPP, CIEG and IO), non-accredited (CEAF), and a network of laboratories and observatories).

1.2 INTERDISCIPLINARY CENTRE FOR GENDER STUDIES

The Interdisciplinary Centre for Gender Studies (CIEG) was created in February 2012. CIEG is the only centre in Portugal specifically dedicated to gender studies.

CIEG aims to research, train, publish and disseminate knowledge, with a participatory model bridging people and institutional partners, whilst contributing to the consolidation and passing of empirical-based knowledge.
